This CLE seminar will touch on all phases of civil litigation, including discovery, trial preparation, settlement negotiations and trial. Two generations of experienced trial lawyers will discuss and contrast old school, conventional methods with modern and evolving techniques and strategies. What still works? What has been improved? How has the "vanishing trial" impacted civil litigation strategy? What is the impact of current technology on traditional trial preparation and trial techniques? Find out from our presenters, David Markowitz and Matt Levin of Markowitz Herbold PC and Bill Barton and Brent Barton of Barton Trial Attorneys.
