Justice for All:
Understanding and Applying Oregon's New Prohibition on Courthouse
Immigration Arrests

In November 2019, Chief Justice Martha Walters issued a Chief Justice Order making immediately effective UTCR 3.190, which prohibits civil immigration arrests without a judicial warrant in and around Oregon's state courthouses. The new UTCR was issued in response to the increased number of arrests made by plainclothes Immigration & Customs Enforcement (ICE) agents with administrative warrants only, and the impacts of those arrests on the ability of state courts to operate and administer justice. Join speakers Nadia Dahab, Innovation Law Lab and Leland Baxter-Neal, ACLU of Oregon, for this CLE program, which will involve a discussion of the scope of the UTCR, its basis in Oregon law, and potential mechanisms for enforcement.
