Immigration Law for the Non-Immigration Attorney: Common Procedures to Use in Your Practice and Volunteer Endeavors

In today's uncertain political climate, undocumented immigrants are facing more challenges and obstacles than ever before. While one cannot simply transition into an entirely new area of law overnight, there are many ways non-immigration attorneys can help those in need.

Amanda Gray and Gretel Ness, Parker Butte & Lane PC, will cover practices and procedures you can utilize to help one of the most vulnerable populations. You'll get an introduction to the basics of protection and removal as well as the day-to-day procedures common in an immigration practice. You'll also gain insight into how to transition/incorporate business immigration into your already existing practice in addition to valuable employment-based immigration issues.

Light snacks and coffee will be available.
