Copyright and the Internet

The Internet makes the dissemination of information far easier than it's ever been before, including information protected by copyright law. Join Intellectual Property attorneys Bert Krages and Julie Reed as they discuss how to advise clients on how to avoid copyright infringement claims and how to protect their own material from being infringed upon. They will also cover the practicalities associated with enforcing the copyrights of materials displayed on the web.

For more information: Contact Kristen Hilton, Sussman Shank LLP at 503.227.1111. For registration questions, contact the MBA at 503.222.3275.
