E-Discovery: The 200-Level Course

In this two-hour seminar, Eleanor Chin of Davis Wright Tremaine will discuss the discovery of structured data: electronic discovery beyond email. The presentation will use case examples and review current industry guidelines on requesting and producing electronically stored information from databases.

Blerina Kotori of Tonkon Torp will discuss e-discovery issues starting with litigation hold to case closure. The presentation will focus on practical and legal considerations in approaching an electronic discovery case. The presenters will evaluate how to create an e-discovery action plan and customize it to each case, including communicating with the client, opposing counsel, and the court; understanding and capturing electronically stored information; and dealing with discovery disputes, including spoliation.
