The New ADA in Action

Practical Advice About the Interpretation of the New Disability Law

It has been two years since the Americans with Disabilities Act was radically altered by the ADA Amendments Act and the landscape of disability discrimination law will never be the same. How have courts been interpreting the new statute? How are attorneys advising their clients in light of the new law on employment and public accommodations issues? How are litigators dealing with the new uncharted territory?

Please join Rich Meneghello, partner with Fisher & Phillips, and Dennis Steinman, partner with Kell Alterman & Runstein as they sort through the latest issues in disability law in both the employment and public accommodations contexts.
