Taking Some Sticks from the Property Rights Bundle: Adverse Possession, Prescriptive Easements, and Other Real Property Encumbrances

Litigator Laurie Hager, a partner in Sussman Shank LLP's Real Estate and Construction practice groups, will discuss Oregon law on hidden encumbrances that may impact real property rights. This presentation will focus on the rules, historical developments, and recent case law on adverse possession and prescriptive easements. This class is a must-attend for transactional and litigation attorneys who represent developers or whose practices involve real property issues.

For more information: Contact Kristen Hilton, Sussman Shank at 503.243.1654. For registration questions, contact the MBA at 503.222.3275.
