Buying, Selling, or Transitioning in or out of Law Practice

Note: This class is worth .5 hours of ethics credit and 1.5 hours of general MCLE credit.

The MBA presents a two-hour program on buying, selling and transitioning in and out of practice. Topics to be discussed include:

- Ethics considerations for buying, selling, or transitioning into or out of a law practice
Practice management issues related to transitions – determining the condition of a law practice
Business valuations – components that make a practice valuable
Alternatives to a strict buy/sell – practical ideas for testing things out
Practice management considerations
Tips for a successful transition
Other important considerations

Our well-qualified panel includes Hong Dao and Barbara Fishleder of the PLF; Roger Delles and David Winstead of Professional Practices Group, which specializes in helping professionals buy, sell and transition their practices; and Mark Fucile of Fucile & Reising LLP.
