Using Technology to Handle Litigation in Today's World

Case Analysis and Beyond

Co-sponsored by LexisNexis

Join attorney David V. Dilenschneider, Director of Client Relations for LexisNexis, as he conducts a fast-paced presentation that walks you through a lawsuit from start to finish, highlighting the tools and techniques that can assist with the various associated tasks.

Topics to be covered include:

- Case organization and analysis
• Determining opposing counsel's experience – with certain types of cases, clients and judges
• Learning about available eDiscovery resources
• Obtaining information about experts, including transcripts, affidavits, reports, etc.
• Using "smart" technology to mine public records to learn about witnesses and jurors

David is a nationally-known speaker who has conducted well over 2,000 presentations to tens of thousands of attendees in cities across the country.

Registration fee includes breakfast.
