The Care and Feeding of Commercial Litigation Clients

NOTE: Registration fee includes breakfast

The MBA presents a breakfast program on managing commercial litigation clients. The key to most successful commercial litigation relationships is understanding the client's goals and setting realistic expectations. A number of common client misconceptions exist. Learn how to effectively respond and avoid traps. Any attorney involved in commercial litigation should attend this program.

Our speakers are Tom Gerber, Bullivant Houser Bailey and Lisa Kaner, Markowitz Herbold Glade & Mehlhaf. Tom's practice has emphasis in commercial transactions and litigation, equipment leasing, inventory and other personal property financing, defense against construction liens, commercial collections, workouts and other specialized creditor/debtor matters. Lisa has served as lead or co-lead counsel in a wide range of complex commercial cases representing both plaintiffs and defendants. Her practice areas include securities litigation, complex contract disputes, business fraud, insurance coverage and employment.

For more information: Call Sim Rapoport of iBridge LLC at 503.906.3933. For registration questions, please call the MBA at 503.222.3275.
