The Business of Practicing Law

Note: Registration includes appetizers, and a cash bar will be available

You want your firm, your business, to run the distance. How do you identify bumps and potholes in the road to success? The Professional Liability Fund's Dee Crocker will moderate a presentation by Andrew Altschul, Mike Paluska, and Judge Vance Day on finding the clear path for your firm.

Andrew Altschul of Buchanan Angeli Altschul & Sullivan has a wealth of experience in law firm management. Eight years ago the appeal of business independence led him to develop his own firm. He will share the tips and tricks he uses as partner and manager of Buchanan Angeli Altschul & Sullivan.

Mike Paluska of Michael J Paluska PC is a solo practitioner in the field of business and commercial real estate transactions. His 15 years of experience began at Saalfeld Griggs before founding his own firm.

Judge Vance Day, appointed to the Marion County Circuit Court this year, practiced law as a successful plaintiff's personal injury attorney before taking the bench. Judge Day has approximately 20 years' experience running law firms, from the shingle he hung after law school to the firm Adams, Hill & Hess.
