Insurance Coverage in Construction Defect Litigation 101

There’s a construction defect, and it’s your client’s fault. What is the occurrence? What triggers coverage? What are the standard exclusions? Additional insureds? And what about your own ethical obligations as insurance defense counsel? Join Chris Carson, Mike Scott and Mike Farnell for a discussion of the basics of insurance coverage in construction defect litigation. Chris Carson is an attorney with Kilmer, Voorhees & Laurick who practices in business, construction and insurance litigation. Mike Scott, with Scott Hookland, has been a neutral in over 1000 cases, many of which involve construction, construction defect, design defect and insurance coverage issues. Mike Farnell is a founding partner of Parsons Farnell & Grein and practices in the area of insurance coverage, appellate law and commercial litigation.
