

Government in Our Daily Lives Looking Locally

Is Portland the City that Works?

Tuesday, September 9, 2014, 7:00 pm
Multnomah County Building Board Room
501 SE Hawthorne Blvd., Portland

Learn and Discuss

Does our unusual "commission" form of government:

Help city leaders address today's complex issues?

Encourage decisions that are equitable, sustainable, innovative, fact-based and cost-effective?

Make Portland's government more or less effective?

Make Portland's government more or less responsive to residents?

Speakers:

Chet Orloff Professor and noted historian
Portland State University

LaVonne City Auditor

Griffin-Valade

Steve Johnson Professor and expert on civic engagement
Portland State University

For more information contact:
The LWV Portland Co-Presidents
503-228-1675
Co-presidents@lwpdx.org

League of Women Voters of Portland
info@lwpdx.org
503-228-1675

*This program is funded in part by the Multnomah Bar Foundation and the Ethel Noble Memorial Bequest.
It is the first in a five-part series, "Government in Our Daily Lives – Looking Locally."*